

Department of Defense DIRECTIVE

NUMBER 1005.6
December 10, 2004

PDUSD(P&R)

SUBJECT: Display of the National Flag at Half-Staff

References: (a) DoD Directive 1005.6, "Display of the National Flag at Half-Staff," January 13, 2003 (hereby canceled)
(b) Section 7 of title 4, United States Code
(c) Section 136 of title 36, United States Code
(d) Section 144 of title 36, United States Code
(e) through (g), see enclosure 1

1. REISSUANCE AND PURPOSE

This Directive:

1.1. Reissues reference (a).

1.2. Updates policy and responsibilities for display of the national flag of the United States at half-staff on the death of present and former principal officials of the Federal government and during national days of mourning.

2. APPLICABILITY AND SCOPE

This Directive applies to:

2.1. The Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Military Departments (including the Coast Guard when it is not operating as a Military Service in the Department of the Navy under agreement with the Department of Homeland Security), the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Defense Agencies, the Department of Defense Field Activities, and all other organizational entities in the Department of Defense (hereafter referred to collectively as the "DoD Components").

2.2. The Commissioned Corps of the Public Health Service and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration under agreements with the Departments of Health and Human Services and Commerce, respectively.

3. POLICY

It is DoD policy that:

3.1. The national flag shall be flown at half-staff worldwide on all DoD buildings, grounds, and naval vessels, as follows:

3.1.1. On Memorial Day until noon then raised to the top of the staff (4 U.S.C. 7, reference (b)).

3.1.2. On Peace Officers Memorial Day, May 15 of each year (36 U.S.C. 136, reference (c)), unless that day is also Armed Forces Day (reference (b)).

3.1.3. On Patriot Day, September 11 of each year (36 U.S.C. 144, reference (d)).

3.1.4. On National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day, December 7 of each year (36 U.S.C. 129, reference (e)).

3.1.5. Each year in honor of the National Fallen Firefighters Memorial Service according to Public Law 107-51 (reference (f)). This date is usually the first Sunday in October and is annually announced by Presidential Proclamation.

3.1.6. On the death of individuals listed at enclosure 2.

3.1.7. When so directed by the President or the Secretary of Defense.

3.2. The responsible military commander shall ensure that the procedures for flying the flag at half-staff are executed uniformly by all the U.S. military units under his or her authority and pursuant to reference (b) as follows:

3.2.1. The term "half-staff" means the position of the flag when it is one-half the distance between the top and bottom of the staff.

3.2.2. The flag, when flown at half-staff, shall be first hoisted to the peak for an instant and then lowered to the half-staff position. The flag shall be again raised to the peak before it is lowered for the day.

3.3. The flag shall be flown at half-staff for individuals described in enclosure 2, on receipt of notification of death from any reliable source, including news media.

3.4. The flag shall be flown at half-staff outside the United States on DoD buildings, grounds, and naval vessels worldwide even if another nation's flag is flown full-staff next to the national flag of the United States.

3.5. In accordance with Presidential Proclamation 3044 (reference (g)), the Heads of DoD Components may direct that the flag be flown at half-staff on buildings, grounds, or naval vessels under their jurisdiction on occasions other than those specified in paragraph 3.1., that they consider proper and appropriate. The Heads of the DoD Components may also delegate the authority to fly the flag at half-staff to individual post, station, detachment, ship, or installation commanders under their jurisdiction for occasions they consider proper and appropriate.

4. RESPONSIBILITIES

4.1. The Principal Deputy Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness, under the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness, shall develop policies governing the conduct of flying the national flag at half-staff for all DoD Components.

4.2. The Heads of the DoD Components shall ensure implementation of this Directive and compliance with its provisions.

5. EFFECTIVE DATE

This Directive is effective immediately.

Paul Wolfowitz
Deputy Secretary of Defense
